

Kemetyl deliver coolants tailored to all needs and vehicle models on the European market. Our supplier of OEM approved coolants is one of the leading suppliers on the European market and produces and develops high-tech coolants. This overview shows which coolant to be used for different car brands. If you are unsure, check the color of the coolant in the radiator or follow instructions in the car's manual. At great uncertainty, we recommend that you empty out the previously used coolant and refill with Kemetyl Longlife 774 D-F. This coolant is the most versatile in our range. For best performance, it must not be mixed with other coolants.
